QWRC Constitution

1 Association Name

The association is to be known as:

- 1.1 Queensland Wildlife Rehabilitation Council Inc.
- 1.2 Queensland Wildlife Rehabilitation Council Inc. will be referred to throughout this document as QWRC.

2 Mission Statement

The mission statement of QWRC is:

- 2.1 To direct, guide, and improve standards and outcomes of native wildlife rehabilitation and release, throughout Queensland.
- 2.2 The slogan of QWRC is “Representing Wildlife Rehabilitators”

3 Aims & Objectives

The aims and objectives of QWRC are:

- 3.1 To be the peak representative organisation for the wildlife rehabilitation industry in Queensland. The council will focus on ensuring excellent welfare for native animals during and post rehabilitation to achieve, complement and advance conservation benefits and outcomes.
- 3.2 To provide a collective voice across the State on wildlife rehabilitation issues and other issues deemed appropriate to the council.
- 3.3 The council will act as an independent advisory council to relevant State government departments and all elements of the wildlife rehabilitation industry. The council will also nominate a representative to participate in any future ministerial advisory committees if requested.
- 3.4 To participate, in conjunction with relevant industry bodies, in developing standards and training for the wildlife care industry.
- 3.5 To seek appropriate standards for the husbandry of animals during rehabilitation.
- 3.6 To assist in maintaining the quality and viability of wildlife care to ensure the welfare of the animals in care is maintained.
- 3.7 To liaise with all relevant government departments in the development and implementation of standards and codes of practice for the husbandry of all native wildlife.
- 3.8 To further the aims and objects of the code of practice for wildlife care.
- 3.9 To promote and maintain the philosophy of wildlife care for the purposes of rehabilitation and release, conservation, education and research.
- 3.10 To collect, assemble and disseminate accurate information on all aspects of wildlife care, rehabilitation and release.
- 3.11 To generally promote the aims and purposes of the council.
- 3.12 To undertake any such programs and activities as is deemed appropriate by a majority vote of the members.

QWRC Constitution

4 Function

The function of QWRC will be to:

- 4.1 Improve wildlife rehabilitation in Queensland, by providing proactive advice to the department and all stakeholders on wildlife rehabilitation, strategies and programs. Consider relevant matters such as good practice, ethics, national and international trends, practicalities, public opinion, scientific knowledge and the economic implications for those concerned.
- 4.2 Provide advice on any wildlife rehabilitation matter referred to it by the department, government agencies or other persons.
- 4.3 Consider, and where appropriate provide advice on submissions from wildlife rehabilitation organisations and agencies, industry or individuals concerning wildlife rehabilitation.
- 4.4 Assist all relevant government departments in reviewing legislation relevant to the rehabilitation of wildlife.
- 4.5 Liaise and promote networking with all stakeholders particularly wildlife care groups, individual permit holders, and all levels of government.
- 4.6 Develop, review and comment on contemporary standards and codes regarding wildlife care and rehabilitation.
- 4.7 Where required, the council may establish working groups or seek wider consultation to assist it in carrying out its functions.
- 4.8 Represent and provide a collective voice for QWRC members involved in the wildlife rehabilitation industry in Queensland.
- 4.9 Improve the quality and outcomes for rehabilitated wildlife by:
 - a) liaising with government departments and community stakeholders in developing standards and guidelines for the care of wildlife;
 - b) providing to the industry recommendations and information relating to wildlife care;
 - c) advancing and promoting effective monitoring programs for all aspects of the industry and its operations.
- 4.10 Advance and promote cooperation in the conduct of all business activities in a professional manner with honesty, integrity, compassion and commitment: realising that an individual's conduct reflects on the entire field of wildlife rehabilitation.
- 4.11 Advance and promote community awareness, interest and support for native wildlife welfare and conservation.
- 4.12 QWRC will seek to ensure all licensed rehabilitators in Queensland have access to adequate insurance coverage for all relevant activities.

QWRC Constitution

5 Membership

Membership of QWRC is unlimited and all members are equal. Each financial QWRC member holds the power of one (1) vote at Annual and General Meetings.

5.1 General Membership

- 5.1.1 Membership of QWRC will be open to all persons interested in wildlife rehabilitation and members of wildlife care groups throughout Queensland can join QWRC by the payment of a fee as laid down by the QWRC from time to time.
- 5.1.2 Council may request, in writing, a member stand down if that person has acted in any way that is:
- prejudicial to the interests of QWRC;
 - contrary to the QWRC objectives;
 - not abiding by all relevant acts and codes ;
 - not acting in accordance with the constitution.
- 5.1.3 A member may appeal against a decision by written notification to the chairperson, stating the grounds and intent for their appeal, within three (3) weeks of the council's decision. Appeals received by due date will be heard at the next scheduled meeting of the council and council will:
- grant the opportunity for that member to appeal to council either in person, via telephone or in a written submission;
 - consider the appeal and determine, by resolution, a response from the members present at such meeting;
 - notify the member concerned, in writing, of the decision within two (2) weeks of afore-mentioned meeting, and consider that decision, as final.
- 5.1.4 A register of all members will be kept, by the Member Secretary, stating full names, addresses and contact details, date of admission to QWRC, date of resignation from QWRC, details about membership and any other details QWRC deems necessary from time to time. QWRC agrees all member information will not be used for any other purpose.
- 5.1.5 All members understand and agree that QWRC will generate this register and that the details on it may be circulated to all QWRC members. Any rehabilitator must indicate their understanding and agreement with this fact on their QWRC membership form.

5.2 Appointment of QWRC Executive Council Members

The Executive Council shall consist of up to eleven (11) councillors.

- 5.2.1 The 11 district representatives will be elected in accordance with section 5.3 Selection of Members.
- 5.2.2 Relevant government departments, the association for Zoological gardens and RSPCA, who are not required to pay membership fees and do not hold the power to vote, may each nominate one representative to the executive council. The appointment of said representatives will be ratified by a majority vote of all QWRC councillors.
- 5.2.3 One person will be elected by fellow councillors for each of the following positions - chairperson, vice chairperson, secretary and treasurer for the term of council.
- 5.2.4 One person may be elected by fellow councillors to be minute taker for the term of council.

QWRC Constitution

- 5.2.5 An Executive Councillor shall have an election term of not more than two (2) years (other than as defined in section 5.5 Re-appointment of the council), but can be elected for consecutive terms.
- 5.2.6 In the absence of the chairperson or vice chairperson at any meeting of the council, the councillors present shall elect a councillor who is present to preside as chairperson for that meeting with due regard to clause 6.5 (quorum).

5.3 Selection and Appointment of Executive Council Members.

- 5.3.1 The QWRC will send all QWRC members in relevant districts a nomination form for the position of QWRC District representative.
- 5.3.2 District boundaries are as defined in schedule 2.
- 5.3.3 Membership closes at the issue of ballot papers for any election. All ballot papers will be posted to members with a self-addressed envelope marked "BALLOT PAPER". Returned envelopes will not be opened until the date set for the close of voting.
- 5.3.4 A member may appoint a proxy for any election they cannot attend in person. They must do so in writing using the appropriate section of the form shown as appendix 4
- a) Each proxy voting form must be given to the secretary before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the form proposes to vote
 - b) Unless otherwise instructed by the appointer, the member named as the proxy may vote as the proxy considers appropriate.
 - c) To vote in a specific manner the member must use the second section of the proxy form which allows them to state how they wish to vote on a previously indicated matter.
- 5.3.5 All nomination forms (Appendix 3) must be completed by the nominee and contain endorsement from at least two (2) other financial QWRC members from within the same District. Completed forms are to be returned to the nominated returning officer by the due date [a minimum of three (3) weeks from mailing].
- 5.3.6 Nominations received will be sorted according to the District in which the applicants reside. Ballot papers will be prepared and circulated to all members in relevant Districts.
- 5.3.7 Should there be only one suitable applicant for any District it will be deemed that applicant is duly elected to the position of representative for that District.
- 5.3.8 All members in relevant Districts will be notified by QWRC within one month of the election of the outcome of the election.
- 5.3.9 The successful applicants from each District will be notified by QWRC within one month of the election of the outcome of the election.
- 5.3.10 The elected person of each district will accept the responsibility of representing their district on the council.

QWRC Constitution

5.4 Vacancies -

- 5.4.1 A council member may resign at any time by tendering their resignation in writing to the council chairperson.
- 5.4.2 If a position becomes vacant, for any reason, within three (3) months of the normal end of the term of that position, the position will remain vacant until the next normal election is held.
- 5.4.3 Should a vacancy occur within six (6) months of original election, the runner up from the previous election, if willing, will be the replacement member and hold the position for the remainder of the original term. Should there be no runner up or the position is declined, another representative will be elected in accordance with section 5.3.
- 5.4.4 Should a vacancy occur at any other time, a by-election shall be held, in accordance with clause 5.4 to fill the vacant position for the completion of the original term.
- 5.4.5 Should a position remain vacant the council may call for nominations or appoint a suitable person by resolution of the council.

5.5 Re-appointment of the Council
